

Institute Celebrates Nations, Nationalities and peoples' Day Colorfully

Leather Industry Development Institute (LIDI) workers and students celebrated the 8th Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Day colorfully in different activities on December 20, 2013 in the the institute hall. The day was celebrated with the motto " Our constitution for our renaissance ".

Wondu Legesse Leather Industry Development Institute (LIDI) General Director, on his opening speech said, nations, nationalities and peoples' day of Ethiopia is gained through a great struggle and ups and downs. Thus, celebrating it in this manner will enable us to see the beauty among ourselves. Our beauty brings unity and our unity creates strength. He added, this was a day on which the FDRE constitution that established the Federal system and brought all Ethiopians to power was endorsed.

He also added his remarkable speech, we celebrate Nation, Nationality and peoples' Day with a commitment to free the country from poverty and backwardness and implement the five year Grand Transformation Plan there by realizing among with LIDI part.

Berhanu Serjabo, Corporate communication Directorate Director said on his part, the students and workers of the Institute celebrating the day with view to further promoting tolerance, peaceful co-existence, cultural exchange and unity thereby contributing to the national efforts towards alleviating poverty.

Furthermore, he said that, the importance of cultural interactions in the country and its linkage to the "unity in diversity" that the Ethiopian people are always aspired to build.

During the celebration, the Institute students wear cultural clothes and show their traditional folks and dances for Institute staffs.

LIDI workers and students conduct enjoyable celebration. It is noted that cultural music add brightness to the celebration of the day.

In related news, the Institute organized a presentation aimed at enhancing the level of awareness of the staffs community on the title "secularism in Ethiopia", in the morning session.

The presentation which was presented by Wondmu kumera, Human Resource and Management Directorate Director, briefed that the nature and concept of secularism in the context of FDRE constitution.